Let us pray for those fleeing their own countries

Let us pray that migrants fleeing from war or hunger, forced to undertake journeys fraught with danger and violence, may find welcome and new living opportunities in their host countries.

This used to be the Month of the Sacred Heart. I hope it still is. He is "fount of love and mercy"

If God had a fridge, your picture would be on it.

If he had a wallet, your photo would be in it.

He sends you flowers every Spring and a sunrise every morning.

Whenever you want to talk, he'll listen.

He could live anywhere in the universe, and he chose your heart.

What about the Christmas gift he sent you at Bethlehem?

Not to mention that Friday at Calvary?

Let's face it HE'S CRAZY ABOUT YOU. (St Joseph's Advocate2002)

This month is traditionally dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. God loves us to bits—"Love one another as I have loved you by this all will know that you are my friends" - notice nothing to do with goods or money we own or the jobs we have.

Prayer of Norman Goodacre—Lord I am stiff and rigid in my prayers. I need to loosen up, To talk to you as a human being. to discuss my problems and my fears with you. to behave as a disciple and not as a distant admirer, setting you on aa pedestal where I feel sure you have no desire to be. I would like very much to enjoy my prayers. To feel relaxed as I do when taking a walk in the country. I would like to enjoy my communion with you as much as I enjoy a piece of good music or a good ballet. I must make my mind work at my prayer so that I can bring everything into it. Humanize me, Lord.

(short Prayers for a long day)

Remember Fr Denis Bourke OMI on outlook? He always sang a love song on Outlook on TV.

*His heart in me keeps him and me in one,
My heart in him his thoughts and senses guide;
He holds mine dear for once it was his own
I cherish his for it in me abides.*

My true love hath my heart and I have his. Sir Philip Sidney.

1st June St Justin. Patron of apologists. He devoted his life to defending and explaining the Christian religion to the Pagans, Jews and Gnostics. He died in about 165, was scourged and beheaded under Emperor Marcus Aurelius.

2nd Corpus Christi. (body and blood of Christ) St John Paul II reminded us that the Church not only celebrates the Eucharist but solemnly bears it in procession, publicly proclaiming that the sacrifice of Christ is for the salvation of the whole world. Our Eucharistic faith gives us confidence that Christ abides with us through all the sorrows of our life, sanctifying us and leading us to his unveiled presence in heaven “Come Good Shepherd, Bread divine, still show us thy mercy sign; O feed us still, keep us thine so we may see thy glories shine in fields of immortality. O thou the wisest mightiest, best our present food, our future rest. Come make us each thy chosen guest.....”

3rd St Kevin Glendalough. founder of Glendalough after spending 7 years as a hermit. Died around 618.

5th St Boniface. went from England to the Netherlands to convert the pagans, he failed but was sent back to Germany by Pope Gregory II. He did great work there and got permission to go back to Friesland. he was murdered there by tribal warriors in 754.

7th St Colman

9th 10th Sunday in Ordinary time Satan doesn't cast himself out! He cant make his way in unless he has tied up the 'strong man' first...!

11th St Barnabas

13th St Anthony of Padua great for finding lost things!

16th 11th Sunday. the kingdom is like a “small seed”. Keep a look out!

20th Irish Martyrs

21st St Aloysius Gonzaga. Don't let the light inside you darken!

22nd St John Fisher and St Thomas More. They were the first canonised of the English martyrs under Henry VIII. More was a lawyer and quickly rose to the highest political post—chancellor of England. John Fisher was a preacher and bishop who gave himself unstintingly to his flock. Henry had both men publicly executed in summer 1535. before the axe fell Thomas More declared himself “the king's good servant, but God's first.” In 2000 Pope John Paul II declared More the universal patron of statesmen and politicians, a witness to the truth that “man cannot be sundered from God, nor politics from morality”

23rd 12th Sunday. He knows what a storm is like! but can calm it at will.

24th Nativity of St John the Baptist

26th St Cyril. “Show yourself to others such as you wish them to be towards you. Great is the glory of compassion, and so truly it is written, that man is a great thing, and merciful man an honourable thing. For virtue restores us to the form of God, and imprints on our souls certain characters as it were of the supreme nature.” Help us! (St Cyril of Alexandria)

28th St Irenaeus was a disciple of St Polycarp, who was in turn a disciple of St John Apostle. He vigorously defended the reality of Christ's incarnation so eloquently proclaimed by John. In old age, he gave his life rather than relinquish his Lord.

29th Ss Peter & Paul whom you all know very well.

Please pray for those who have died
